

GiGA CAMP

SKREENS PARK

17 TO 19 JUNE 2011

It's Back, It's GiGA Camp 2011!

Planning for GiGA Camp 2011 is well under way and the team are hard at work organising a huge range of activities and challenges for Scouts and Guides from every corner of Essex. GiGA Camp is going to be THE activity weekend of 2011.

What activities are there going to be?

To start with there'll be all of the Skreens Park on-site activities plus they hope to have back the It's a Knockout event after its first outing at GiGA Camp in 2009. To make the weekend even more amazing they have their own fun fair of a Waltzer and Dodgems.

Just when you thought they couldn't fit in anything else they have Archery, Climbing, Caving, Water Activities, Crafts and loads more to keep you busy.

But that's just during the Day, for the evening as well as the Fun fair, they will have an Entertainments Marquee where you can rock the night away!

What is it going to cost?

The campfee, activity costs and food will be just £45 per person if you get your deposit of £10 in by the 28th January 2011. This gives us a couple of days to sort out the cheques and paperwork to get in by the deadline of 31st January. We will be charged an additional £5 per person for any people we book in after this date will – the cost which will be passed on to those getting in late. So get in early and pay just £45 or leave it late and pay £50! We are also likely to limit the amount we take as well and if we hear that places are filling up and nearing the maximum we will just book in what we have at the time.

This is camp is for Scout ages (remember you can stay in Scouts until you are 14.5), but if you will be an Explorer by the time the camp comes round please speak to Dan to see how you may be able to come along still.

So if you want to go, return you're the below form and a deposit of £10 to Glyn ASAP.
